

Dimitris Paraskevopoulos holds a BA in Sociology, an MA in Social Research on Regional Development and Social Cohesion and a PhD in Sociology from the University of the Aegean. In the academic year 2018-2019, he was a University Scholar of the Department of Business Administration at the University of the Aegean. His research interests focus on sociology and criminology of sports, methodology of social research, as well as on issues of social control, securitization and surveillance processes. He has been involved in various conferences, research projects, and he has a number of journal articles and book chapters. He has participated in the organizing committees of scientific conferences.